BRENTWOOD NOTES.

The Magnolia Sewing Circle met at the residence of Mrs. Robert E. Johnson on the Franklin road last Monday, April 29. All the members were in attendance. A nice lot of sewing was accomplished. Revs. S. M. Utley and James D. Fennell visited the circle in the evening and dined with them. Those present of the circle were Mesdames Alexander Merritt, Ed. Ward Bills, Green Hunt, Sol. Hunt, Thomas Walker, Samuel Vernon, Simon Woods, G. W. Voorhies, Alex. Rains, Walter Dowell, Anthony Phillips, Rodin Perkins, R. E. Johnson and J. C. Crawley. At 4:30 o'clock the president invited the guests into dinner, where an elaborate three-course menu was served them. Miss Ella Johnson, the hostess, was assisted in serving by Mrs. Patsy Johnson, Miss Bessie Johnson, and Miss Sabie J. Perkins. After rejoining the guests returned to the sitting room, where they listened to a very fine address by Rev. S. M. Utley, Presiding Elder of the West Nashville District.

Mrs. and Mrs. Montgomery Vernon, again Nashville, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vernon, last Sunday.

Miss Eunice Vernon spent last Sunday in Brentwood.

Mrs. Scott Claiborne is still confined in her bed.

Mrs. Patsy Perkins Johnson's school closed last Friday. The exercises were good and listened to by a large crowd of visitors.

Rev. S. M. Utley held the quarterly conference at Brook's Chapel M. E. Church Monday night, April 29. The quarterly conference was largely attended. The routine business of the church was carried through quietly to the satisfaction of all interested. Rev. James D. Fennell was appointed by the Presiding Elder, and it was agreed to generally by the church members of Brook's Chapel, to fill an appointment one Sunday in each month, and to preach at Beach Grove, Williamson County, until the General Conference meets.

THE CARNATION CLUB.

The Carnation Club met last week at the residence of Mrs. B. F. Marton, Tenth avenue, South. After the transaction of business one hour was spent in needle work, after which the ladies were led to the dining room where a tempting three-course menu was served. Members that were present: Mesdames Hal Duff, Chas. Duff, Robert Ralph, F. A. Turner, P. A. Sims, H. M. Burns, Hallie Pullen, W. M. Rucker, Mary Fowler, H. C. Barnes, Robert Clay, W. M. Amons, Chas. Bond.

MRS. GEDDINGS PASSES THROUGH THE CITY.

Mrs. Elizabeth Geddings, of Lexington, Miss., was in the city Thursday and Friday. While here she was the guest of her granddaughter, Miss Nannie I. Sumner. Mrs. Geddings left Friday evening for Jeffersonville, Ind., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Nannie S. Ritz, who formerly lived in this city.

MAKING GREAT PREPARATION—THOUSANDS EXPECTED.

The local societies of Christian Endeavor in the A. M. E. Churches of the city are making great preparations for the entertaining of the national session of the Allen Christian Endeavors which convenes at St. John A. M. E. Church, 207 Cedar street and Eighth ave. North, in July, from the 2nd to the 8th, inclusive.

The local union, which consists of the leagues of Nashville and vicinity, with Rev. Mr. Flagg, pastor of Payne Chapel A. M. E. Church, president, is bending every effort to prepare for their guests.

Reports are coming from every section and the indications are that Nashville will be overrun with visitors. Several special trains will be run from far-off states, some as far as the states of New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Florida. It is estimated that at least three thousand delegates will be in attendance.

The league members at St. John A. M. E. Church are hard at work preparing to put the church in readiness to receive the meeting. The ablest men and women of the church will be here, and a great meeting is anticipated.

TWENTIETH SPRING FESTIVAL.

The Twentieth Spring Festival of the Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church, bids fair to excel all previous ones, with her variety of beautifully decorated booths, where you can eat with pleasure and drink by measure from the best of soft and cooling streams. There will be the novelty booth, with its many useful articles; then the garment boots conducted by a group of the city's best seamstresses. Then the exhibit booth with its many attractions. The booths will be managed by the ladies.

No. 1, Mrs. Eliza Wilder—Meats.
No. 2, Mrs. Nannie Mortin—Ice Cream.

No. 3, Miss Lula Tillman—Candy.
No. 4, Miss Ollie Cook—"Soft Drinks."

No. 5, Mrs. Willie Alsup—Garments.
No. 6, Mrs. Carrie Young—Novelty.
No. 7, Mrs. Alice Douglass—Tinware.

A good dinner will be served each day, from 11-30 until 1 p. m. for 15 cents.

WHITE HOUSE NOTES.

The Clarksville District Ministerial Council closed a very interesting session at Cumberland City, Tenn., last week.

Rev. W. Conway Smith, Presiding Elder and Chairman of the District, who has been confined to his room for the past four months, was able to preside over the council. All the ministers were present except Revs. T. A. Wilson, H. E. Rucker, N. A. Trice and Wm. Douglass.

The council levied a special mission tax upon the churches of the district, which amounted to $112, to be reported at the District Conference, which will be held at Springfield, Tenn., July 24-28. There was quite a spiritual wave during the council. Two persons professed a hope in Christ. Rev. P. J. Coleman, A. M., and B. J. Jones did the preaching.

Elder Smith delivered quite a timely lecture to the council. The District seems to have taken on new life.

Elder Smith left Cumberland city for Crossplain C. M. E. Church, where an interesting quarterly conference was held.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. MATTIE P. HADDOX.

It is not death to die,
To leave this weary road,
And 'mid the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.

It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake in glorious repose,
To spend eternal years.

It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free
From dungeon chain to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.

My brothers and sisters, these sentiments should console every bereaved heart, and especially when one thinks of a beautiful life and noble character, a life so beautifully spent. A character so spotless as was Sister Mattie P. Haddox in whose memory this paper is written. Thinking of her it is indeed a consolation if our faith is sufficient for us to say with the poet, "It is not death to die."

Sister Mattie P. Haddox became a member of Household of Ruth 82, Department of the Grand U. O. of O. F. in this city twenty-nine years ago and member of the Joint Hall Association three years ago. The record shows her to have been a faithful and consistent member in both departments; she was conscientious and tireless in the performance of every duty which she was called on to perform. As a member of the Hall Association she was ever vigilant, taking advantage of every opportunity to aid the Association in the furtherance of its great work. Her life was a living illustration of the time and honored principles of our noble Order—Friendship, Love and Truth.

Sister Haddox, like Ruth of old, was constantly laboring for others. She built for herself a monument more lasting than gold. Her beautiful character will ever be fresh in our minds and as long as memory retains its force among us, we will cherish the name of Sister Mattie P. Haddox in our minds and in our hearts. She died in the full triumphs of Christian faith and with the honors of a true Ruth sister.

Away back from time memorial it has been the habit of men to do honor to their departed dead and especially to those who represented some collective interest involving a number of members like our noble Order and the Hall Association. Long as we live may we all continue to do honor to Sister Mattie P. Haddox's blessed memory, and when our career comes to a close in this present world, may our lot be the same as was our beloved sister's, and, coming to the end of life, may we, like she, leave a useful life and enter a joyous eternity.

J. W. LEE,

EMMA ALFORD,

A. DAVIS.

AT FORTRESS MONROE, VA.

Information has been received that Mr. C. B. Ruddick, of the pharmaceutical class of 1907 at the Meharry Medical College, is for the present at Fortress Monroe, Va. He will in all probability remain there during this year. His plans have not as yet matured as to where he will locate. Mr. Ruddick expressed some time before leaving Nashville his desire to remain in the South, although he has had many inducements to open in the North. Being a New Yorker, he was somewhat reluctant in declining these flattering inducements. He stated in his communication to a friend that the Globe was furnishing him with valuable news as to the whereabouts of his classmates and friends.

E. C. MCNAIRY TO SPEAK IN LOUISVILLE.

The Globe is in receipt of a communication from Mr. E. C. McNairy, who is now at the French Lick Springs in Indiana, in which he sends three new subscribers to the paper. Mr. McNairy will attend the May musical festival in Louisville, at which the Fisk Glee Club of this city is expected to sing. The Sunday following he is to address the Y. M. C. A. in the evening, his subject being "Our National Life." As Mr. McNairy is an entertaining speaker and a great student of current events his lecture will doubtless prove one of great interest to the people of the "Falls City."
